

GARY MITCHELL

Gary Mitchell is a Senior Systems Analyst for Southwestern Energy. In this role Mr. Mitchell serves as a strategic business partner and the senior key point of contact for the Joint Venture Accounting Information System activities within Southwestern Energy.

Prior to joining Southwestern Energy, Mr. Mitchell spent 19 years at American Bureau of Shipping with increasing U.S. and global roles within the Information System department ultimately rising to the role of Senior Project Manager. Mr. Mitchell is a certified Project Management Professional. He earned his certification from Project Management Institute.

Mr. Mitchell obtained a BA in Economics from Rutgers University.