

CHARLES S. GORDON

Charles S. Gordon is the Vice President, JM Family Project Management Office, World Omni Project Management Office and Enterprise Project Management Office at JM Family Enterprises. Mr. Gordon serves as a strategic business partner and has responsibilities for IT Strategy and Project Delivery.

Since joining JM Family in 2001, Mr. Gordon has held several leadership positions with the company. He has also been instrumental in the delivery of several Major initiatives that have brought great value to the organization and has helped JM Family to become the most successful distribution arm within the Toyota family Globally.

Mr. Gordon spent 6 years on the Board of the Urban League of Broward County Board and he is also on the Board of the Cornwall College Alumni Association, a high school in Jamaica.

Mr. Gordon obtained a BSC in Computer Science from Rockford University, in Rockford, Illinois, where he also represented his University in NCAA soccer.